Halloween Hop To Be Free To Tartar Teen Members

With treasury funds now available, the Tartar Teen Club will hold a free dance for club members on Halloween, October 31, in the Torrance Civic Auditorium, according to Miss Doris Avis, adult supervisor.

Don Gordon and his 15-piece orchestra will provide the music. Non-members may attend the affair (with dates or stag) upon presentation of their Torrance High Student Body cards and 25 cents. All others will be charged 50 cents, Miss Avis said.

The dance is not a costume affair and boys in Levis will not be admitted. Karen Ness, chairman of the decoration committee, said she and 14 volunteers would be working Sunday afternoon decorating the auditorium for the dance.

Sponsored by the City Recreation Department, the dance will start at 8 p.m. and end at 11 p.m.

College Groups Oppose Prop. 1 On State Ballot

The El Camino College student council, the board of trustees, and the faculty club have gone on record as opposing propositions 1 and 6 in the November California election.

The board of trustees is opposing proposition 1, which would eliminate personal property tax, because the passage of this bill would take some $40,000 from El Camino's budget this year.

This would definitely slow down production on the much needed new buildings, the board stated.

According to the board, the passage of proposition 1 would be of little benefit to the homeowner. The only beneficiaries of such a bill would be the large organizations with a heavy merchandising inventory.

Proposition 6, a bill to legalize gambling in California, would harm the feeling of sportsmanship among colleges during intercollegiate athletic and social events, according to the faculty club of El Camino which is opposing passage of the measure. Faculty club members feel that the sportsmanship of both participants and fans would be harmed by such a bill.

At the last meeting the student council voted unanimously to oppose both measures.

Caminoites to Hop To Dixie Land Band

An eight-piece "bare foot philharmonic" will play "red hot Dixie" at the Halloween Hop October 28 in the El Camino College gym.

This is one of the many new groups and ensembles designed for outside performances formed by the music department. It is under the direction of Hamilton M. Maddaford and Lorn Christensen.

The new organizations in the department include a girls' trio, consisting of Dolores Finlay, Redondo Beach; Joyce Porter, Los Angeles; and Joy Miller, Gardena. A male quartet and woodwind quartet also have been formed.

"Brooms for Blind Sale"

Torrance Lions Club will sponsor the "Brooms for the Blind" sale in Torrance on November 17, according to Al Ewalt, president of the club.

The brooms to be sold will be purchased from the Workshop for the Blind, and proceeds of the sale after the brooms are paid for will go to the Torrance Lions Club charity and blind aid fund.

Roy Peterson, chairman of the ways and means committee, said that his group is sponsoring the sale, with Ray Rogers, Paul Diamond, C. B. Walls, and Allen Klitzker in charge. Other club members will be asked to assist. "Brooms for the Blind" sales, in addition to providing an outlet for the brooms made by the blind, have netted Lions charity funds thousands of dollars in other cities, Peterson said.
